

NEW TEAM MEMBER ANNOUNCEMENT

ISAAC YAU

June 8, 2026

We are pleased to welcome Isaac Yau to our team as an Account Manager.

Isaac joins us with extensive experience in the automation and power transmission industries. With more than 15 years of expertise in technical sales and OEM account management, he brings a strong combination of engineering knowledge, strategic account development, and customer relationship management.

Isaac resides in Wheeling, Illinois, with his wife and their child. Outside of work, he enjoys staying active through fitness and cycling, spending time camping, and watching movies with family and friends.

Please join us in welcoming Isaac to the team. We look forward to his contributions and wish him continued success in his new role.
